Dear Rory and Lorie:

It is with great joy that Harley and I extend congratulations to Regina's newest Citizens of the Year. Yahoo!

We are absolutely thrilled to learn that this worthy recognition has been bestowed upon you both. There is not a more deserving couple. I have said this before, but it bears repeating, you have earned our deepest admiration for your exceptional generosity and tireless work in bringing joy, hope, and inspiration to people. You are making a positive difference and more could not be asked of a person. Truly, you make the world a better place.

I hope that our paths soon cross. It will be such a delight to personally acknowledge your most recent honour.

With every good wish,
